

I have noticed a marked reduction in the nuisance sales calls I receive since signing up with the do not call program in NJ. Most of these calls are unsolicited and usually come at inconvenient times ie(during dinner or right when you'll find out 'who done it'). I personally find it a comfort to be able to answer the phone and not have some high pressure sales person intent on selling me something on the line wasting my valuable free time.